Lomitan Held in Waterfront Beating Death

A Lomita longshoreman and another man were arrested Monday during the investigation of a fatal beating of a Long Beach harbor employee.

Eugene Edwin Erickson, 27, of 25008 Cypress St., and Richard E. Rathburn, 26, of Wilmington, were held shortly after death of William B. Cole, 63, in Seaside Hospital. He died as result of a head injury suffered in a fight Saturday on Pier B.

The brawl started after Cole ordered the men to drive their car over a strip of freshly paved pier, Rathburn suffered facial cuts and was given treatment in an emergency hospital.
